Introduction

The Definition of the Evaluation Domain (DED) ensures consistency between a course and the related evaluation instruments. The DED is used to select, organize and describe the essential and representative elements of the course. The DED is based on the program of study and the course, but should by no means replace them in the planning of instructional activities.

The DED is the reference document that ensures the validity of the examinations across the province.¹ This document serves as a framework for developing multiple equivalent versions of an evaluation instrument.

The DED for each ministerial examination is developed by the Ministère de l'Éducation, du Loisir et du Sport (MELS). The DEDs for other types of examinations are developed by MELS or, at the request of school boards, by Société GRICS (BIM). For ethical reasons, only those responsible for developing Definitions of the Evaluation Domain can modify their content.

Examinations developed by MELS are consistent with the content of their respective DEDs. It is recommended that all other examinations be in agreement with the DED.

Section – Interacting orally: 30 minutes (25 minutes for the preparation and 3 to 5 minutes for the interaction)

Section – Listening to informative texts: 30 minutes

Section – Reading informative texts: 60 minutes

Section – Writing informative texts: 60 minutes

Examination Content

The examination focuses on a real-life situation related to the essentials of daily life (e.g. returning merchandise, common banking services, renting living quarters). As well as interacting orally, the adult learner will be required to read, write and listen to informative texts. When possible, the task or tasks related to the real-life situation may measure more than one evaluation criterion.

Section – Interacting orally

The adult learner interacts with another speaker. He/she may ask for and give information, instructions and advice, describe problems, express opinions and/or state his/her needs and preferences.

Section – Listening to informative texts

The adult learner listens to an informative text (e.g. recorded message, public announcement, TV/radio commercial). To show his/her understanding of the main idea and specific details of the oral text, the adult may complete a questionnaire and/or other documents relevant to the task.

Section – Reading informative texts

The adult learner reads an informative text (e.g. classified ad, flyer, product label, form). To show his/her understanding of the main idea and specific details of the written text, the adult may complete a questionnaire and/or other documents relevant to the task.

Section – Writing informative texts

The adult learner produces an informative text (e.g. list, message, billboard notice, form), approximately 75 words in length. This section of the examination evaluates the learner's ability to clearly and legibly provide basic information that incorporates correct grammar, vocabulary, punctuation and spelling.
